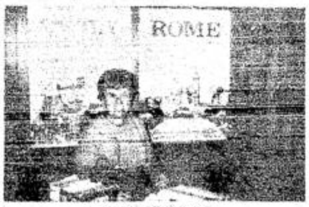
Honeymoon Consultant



MRS. MARY GATCHES

Mrs. Mary Gatches, 7 Stanford Dr., Hazlet, has been appointed Honeymoon Consultant at A Better Trip, Inc., Matawan Travel Agency.

A graduate of the Meridian Travel School in New York, Mrs. Gatches has traveled extensively in the United States and Europe. A former WAVE, she spent two years in Hawaii during World War II and still subscribes to the Honolulu newspaper. "That's when my wanderlust began," said the vivacious redhead whose hobby has long been reading travel folders and planning trips. While in the service, she attended Hunter College and Oklahoma A & M.

Mrs. Gatches and her husband, Clem, a photo-engraver with the Newark Star Ledger, have an audio-visual record of their last trip to Europe, including movies, slides and tape recordings of everything "from the screech of our bus to the Changing of the Guard."

"We were able to bring the trip home to our daughters, Cindy and Pam, this way," she said.

At the travel agency, Mrs. Gatches will custom plan honeymoons, "whether a couple has $100 to spend or $5000 - a weekend or a month." She'll consider personal tastes and interests in planning what she calls "Everyone's most important vacation."

Benefit Tuesday

At the September meeting of the Matawan Jaycee - ettes held at Don Quixote Inn, Route 34, Matawan, plans were finalized for the second annual Fashion Show and Card Party scheduled for Tuesday at Don Quixote. Fashions will be presented by Franklin Simon, Eatontown. Door prizes will be awarded and refreshments served.

Mrs. William Greenough, chairman of the show, may be contacted at 566-5742. Tickets may be obtained by calling Mrs. Terry Penrod, 566-3281.

The Jaycee - ettes started planning for their activities and projects to be held throughout the year. A cookbook sale will be held during November and December. These books offer recipes from Jaycee wives all over the country. Order blanks will be available at stores in the Matawan area.

In October, several members of the Jaycee - ettes are planning a Halloween game party for the patients at Marlboro State Hospital. It is anticipated members will be able to entertain the patients in this way each month throughout the year.

The meeting was concluded with the auction of vacation gifts. Members were asked to send a gift from their vacation spot, and these were auctioned. There were several gifts from Puerto Rico and many different states. The farthest came from Germany.

The next meeting will be held Wednesday, Oct. 22, at the Don Quixote. All Jaycee wives are invited to attend.

Matawan Youth Semi-Finalist

Kimball D. Beeman, Matawan, has been named a semi - finalist in the National Merit Scholarship competition.
