The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL <http://www.microsoft.com/windows/windows-7/beta-download.aspx>. The page features the Windows logo and navigation links for Home, Products, Buy, Downloads, and Help & How-to. A search bar is located in the top right corner. The main content area is titled "Beta" and includes tabs for Beta, Installation instructions, How to backup a PC, and FAQ. A prominent message states: "Sorry, Windows 7 Beta downloads are no longer available. You can still register for a product key or look up the key you've already gotten. To look up your product key, just pick your version and language below, and click Go. From there, sign in with your Windows Live ID, and your product key will appear on the next page." Below this message are two sections for getting a product key: "Get key for 32-bit version" and "Get key for 64-bit version", each with a "Select language" dropdown and a "GO" button. On the right side, there is an "Information for" section with a list of categories: IT Pros, Developers, Enterprise, Small business, and Press. Further down, there are links for "Watch the videos", "Watch us work" (with a sub-link to "Sign up to a feed of The Windows Blog"), "Questions? Answers?" (with a sub-link to "Join the Windows 7 QnA"), and "Windows. Your PC. Your Phone. Your Internet." (with a sub-link to "Discover the possibilities.").
