Google Play Books

Google's version of Kindle, Google Play Books lets you read ebooks on your mobile device, offering New York Times Bestsellers available for purchase, in addition to plenty of free reading material.

How users use it:
Google Play Books has some nice features, like a built-in dictionary and the ability to sync your bookmarks across devices.

How it makes Google money:
Not a lot of options for advertisers unless you're interested in publicizing ebooks, in which case Google is entitled to a commission.

C+ Grade
Reviews are mixed. Nothing revolutionary, and Kindle's setup is more seamless and user-friendly.
