Spotted by Head of the Hong Kong Stuntmen Association and director Wei Tung and England-born Hong Kong movie expert Bey Logan, Adkins found himself in the East for the first time.. [1]3FilmographyEarly life[edit]Scott Edward Adkins was born in Sutton Coldfield, a town within Birmingham, England on 17 June 1976 into a family of butchers.. He appeared in a few episodes in BBC's EastEnders (1985) and City Central (1998), and a lead role in Sky One comedy drama Mile High (2003) followed by a regular role in BBC's Holby City (1999) as Bradley Hume, the assistant general manager of Holby General.. [2] He first became interested in martial arts at the age of ten, when he visited a local Judo club with his father and older brother.. He had the opportunity to work with some of Hong Kong cinema's leading action directors including Yuen Woo-ping, Corey Yuen, Sammo Hung and Jackie Chan.. It was this film that broke him into the mainstream with his villainous portrayal of the Russian MMA underground fighter Boyka. cea114251b Case Tv 380 Service Manual Down Load
